Hooray for Books

Creative classes where kids look, cook & devour good books!™

Hooray for Books, with its ever-changing line up of classes, is again offering cooking camps for slightly older children this summer. You know us as the program that teaches children to read with a side of cooking and a cup of humor. We hope our Cooking Camps will fuel your kids' passion for cooking. We believe that kids learn best by doing and having fun, and that's how our camps are designed. Our instructor has years of teaching/cooking experience. Our classroom was designed so that kids learn to cook in a comfortable, safe, hands-on environment. We hope to encourage a lifelong appreciation for food, fun in the kitchen, and healthy eating.

summer vacation programs

- Programs run Tuesday through Thursday of each camp week from 9:30- 12:30 or 1:30-4:30 for ages 7-11. (Don't forget a lunch for the earlier session!)
- During each class students will prepare 3-4 recipes and will proudly bring home lots of yummy food when they come to a Hooray for Books cooking camp! Get ready to step aside in the kitchen and let your child take over.

Session 1: International Flare: During each class, we will cook our way through one country a day .Homemade Pasta, Perfecto Pizza, and Inside-Out Crepes are just a few of the treats we will create.

Session 2: Yum, Yum, Yum! Each day we will whip up several heavenly dessert creations from scratch!

Who's teaching?

Either Mary Murphy, owner and chief creator of HFB or...

Maureen Doctoroff developed a love for cooking in her mother's kitchen. Unafraid to try new things, she tackled even the most daunting recipes. With a degree in elementary education she combines her passion for children and food in these camps. Self-taught, she has made cooking a fun hobby. A mother of 2 girls, she really loves the eagerness and curiosity that children bring to the kitchen. Maureen has worked at HFB for the past 4 years.

Cooking camps will be held at 31 Elizabeth Road in Hopkinton.

New weeks may be added! Call to be placed on a waitlist!
