Creative classes where kids look, cook & devour good books!™

Please note our new age groups!

Toddlers in the Kitchen: Mom-n-Me classes designed for 20 months – 3 year olds (who are not quite ready for a drop-off) and a parent/caregiver. During these one hour classes, young children will be introduced to the theme of the class, will share and read along with a new story, participate in a hands-on cooking project, and join the group during an introductory reading-language based game. Infant siblings are welcome to join us! Choose either the September 19th OR the October 31st. session! For the fall, class days are Monday, Thursday and Friday mornings for one hour. These five week sessions are offered in the fall, winter, and spring! More classes can be added based on client wishes- please ask!

Beginner Bakers/Mix-it-Up: we are no longer offering classes just for the young 3 year olds. These classes will now be for mixed ages, almost 3-5 years. Classes for little chefs are “dished up” once a week for 2 hours, bringing books to life with an emphasis on early literacy skills, creative expression, social skills, hands-on cooking fun, and the basics of good nutrition. Potty training is NOT required. Our Mix-it-Up classes are for children and/or siblings age 3-5! Sessions start the week of Sept. 19th.

Chefs in Training: Mouth-watering classes for slightly older 4-6 year olds are offered once a week for 2 hours. Each class takes the children on an alphabet adventure where they “sift” through new literature, “create” tasty treats inspired by the stories, and “stir up” fun while playing reading-readiness games. Children are taken “beyond the basics” of the alphabet with challenging phonemic awareness games etc. They are also introduced to kitchen safety, measuring, mixing, cooperation, and nutrition. Check out our Mix-it-Up classes for children and/or siblings age 3-5 too!

What’s the Difference between Mix, Baker + Chefs classes? Putting together a schedule is no easy feat! At HFB the lessons for both Mix-It-Up and Chefs will be geared up or down based on the makeup of each class. We know how to challenge everyone, yet we want everyone to find a time + day that works! So essentially- there is not a huge difference between the two classes. Historically, we tend to see younger kids earlier in the day! Sessions start the week of Sept. 12th.

K Stay ½ Day Program: Class is held before or after the kindergarten school half day. This class complements the school experience by enriching each day with a fun theme and corresponding cooking or science activity, writing projects, cookbook reading challenges, phonemic awareness/reading games, and so much more in a small group setting (maximum of 12 children on site) with a veteran teacher. This is NOT your average after-school program! Call for availability as these classes are held at 31 Elizabeth Rd. in Hopkinton & include bus service to/from Center School (although out-of-towners are welcome to join us). Due to the full day pilot in Hopkinton we will be adding after-school K classes (see below) in the late fall/ early winter for those who can’t participate during our ½ day sessions. We are also offering K Stay Wednesdays on all those pesky early release days when your child has NO school- at least he/she can come to HFB and participate in a one-of-a-kind day (open to all K aged children!) Call if you are interested!

K+1st Grade Book/Cook Clubs: We are offering classes once a week for first graders and full day kindergarteners who love to cook too! Our book groups will read a new chapter book each week (supplied by HFB.) After some lively discussions, intro to new skills, and activities, we’ll move into the kitchen to whip up a treat related to the story. This class encourages all levels of readers to feel successful and have fun! Our fall session starts the week of October 24th and runs for 6 weeks! Winter sessions will begin in early January. Exact start times after school will be determined by the group. By forming a group carpool from Center School to the facility at 3:10ish, we were able to save pick-ups/drop-offs for Hopkinton parents too! Out-of-towners are welcome to join us too!

Celebrating 10 years of business in Hopkinton we have turned hundreds of children on to the joy of reading with a side of cooking and a cup of humor! All our classes (except K Stay & Toddlers in the Kitchen) are held at our state-of-the-art facility at 89 Hayden Rowe, minutes from EMC Park, Target® and downtown Hopkinton! Sign on with friends and save! For more info check out:
